ROUGH RIDERS' GRAND REUNION.

Col. Roosevelt's Ovation a Glorious Affair—Medal Presentation.

SOME CRITICAL NOTES ON THE TRIP.

Las Vegas, N. M., June 25.—The celebration in honor of the Rough Riders' reunion, which commenced in this city yesterday, did not start out under the most auspicious circumstances...

But as all this was, it was not the worst nor even one-half of the worst. The abundant rainfall of the night before, which had been falling for some time, had caused a washout...

The greatest of enthusiasms marked the proceedings, which are covered in full by the Associated Press report. Roosevelt was chosen for the most of the time, for he spoke of his name was mentioned. Liberal applause was also given to the many other popular officers and men in the company...

MARTINEZ VOICES HIS INDIGNATION. Mr. Martinez has the reputation of being the most resourceful politician and the slickest diplomat within the confines of San Miguel county. It was through his efforts, skillfully directed, that the Chihuahua band, which has proved such an incomparable ornament to the reunion celebration, was permitted to come to Las Vegas...

THE TRIP. The train steamed along at a fast rate until Chapelle, N. M., was reached, when it came to a standstill and did not get in motion again until two hours had passed. The reason for this was, of course, the fact that the Chihuahua, Silver City and Albuquerque bands were out on the embankment of the railroad...

Having bought the interest of Mr. Simper in the shoe business I shall go it alone. Having a long experience in this line, I think I can please you. Nothing shall ever induce me to misrepresent goods either in the store or advertisements. Just received a full line of Children's Red School Shoes...

posed to roundly abuse the railroad company and to also shoulder a portion of the blame on the people of Las Vegas. While it is true that the Albuquerqueans were keenly disappointed in the turn things had taken, as many had planned to attend the reunion...

There was universal rejoicing when at 2:30 p. m. the conductor called out, "all aboard for Las Vegas." The train started on its way at 3 o'clock. The train pulled into Las Vegas, where there were several thousand people assembled on the depot...

Your correspondent's first sight of Colonel Roosevelt was gained as he was rushing down town with the rest of the new comers, who scattered like a swarm of disturbed bees in summer, in every direction in search of "room and board."

ROUGH RIDERS' ASSEMBLY. The Duncan opera house was crowded yesterday afternoon from pit to dome by Rough Riders, who are attending the reunion, and an immense gathering of spectators...

At the conclusion of the colonel's address, the assembly proceeded to select a meeting place for the reunion of 1901. The struggle for the honor narrowed it down to either the Hotel El Comodoro or the Hotel El Comodoro...

On Friday preceding the reunion, the merchants and business men generally of Las Vegas decorated their places of business and residences in more gorgeous style than ever before in the city's history. All of the invited guests of Las Vegas, and over 2,000 other people going there for the purpose of witnessing the exercises on the first and second important days of the reunion...
