

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, it appears that the public good would be promoted by adding to the Sierra National Forest certain lands, within the States of California and Nevada, which are in part covered with timber, and by excluding therefrom certain lands within the State of California;

Sierra National Forest, Cal. and Nev. Preamble. Vol. 27, p. 1059. Vol. 33, p. 702.

Now, therefore, I, Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, by virtue of the power in me vested by the Act of Congress, approved June fourth, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, entitled, "An Act Making appropriations for sundry civil expenses of the Government for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, and for other purposes," do proclaim that the Sierra National Forest is hereby enlarged to include the said additional lands, and that the boundaries of the aforesaid National Forest are now as shown on the diagram forming a part hereof.

Boundaries modified. Vol. 30, p. 36. Post, pp. 2235, 2249.

The withdrawal made by this proclamation shall, as to all lands which are at this date legally appropriated under the public land laws or reserved for any public purpose, be subject to and shall not interfere with or defeat legal rights under such appropriation nor prevent the use for such public purpose of lands so reserved, so long as such appropriation is legally maintained, or such reservation remains in force. And such withdrawal shall not limit the rights granted to the city of Los Angeles by the Act of Congress approved June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and six, Thirty-four Statutes at Large, page eight hundred and one.

Prior rights, etc., not affected.

Rights granted Los Angeles, Cal., not affected. Vol. 34, p. 801.

This proclamation shall not prevent the settlement and entry of any lands heretofore opened to settlement and entry under the Act of Congress approved June eleventh, nineteen hundred and six, entitled, "An Act to provide for the entry of Agricultural lands within forest reserves."

Agricultural lands. Vol. 34, p. 233.

The lands hereby excluded from the Sierra National Forest which are not embraced in any other withdrawal, reservation, or appropriation, shall be restored to the public domain and become subject to settlement under the general provisions of the homestead laws on such date and after such notice by publication as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe, but shall not become subject to entry, filing, selection, or other form of appropriation until the expiration of thirty days from the date so fixed, and no person will be permitted to gain or exercise any right whatever under any settlement or occupation begun prior to such date, and all such settlement and occupation are hereby forbidden.

Lands restored to public domain.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington this 20th day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eight, [SEAL.] and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and thirty-second.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

By the President:
ROBERT BACON
Acting Secretary of State.
